

Is life insurance part of your financial plan?

Life insurance is essential when it comes to protecting your family's financial future. Not everyone understands what life insurance really does and why they actually need it. What it all boils down to: life insurance is one of the keys toward financial health and well-being.

Are you ready to take the first step toward owning your financial fitness journey?

Advantages of Individual Term Life Insurance from Legal & General America

- Lock in one level price guaranteed not to increase during the term period you choose (10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35 or 40 years)
- Have confidence in a company with a history more than 180 years strong and over 1.3 million US customers¹
- Check your policy and pay your bill online or via smartphone
- Term Riders can be added to a base policy to provide flexibility and to ensure you have the right amount of coverage when you need it and less when you don't
- Child Riders are available to provide some coverage on children
- Since an individual policy is not connected to your employer, it is completely portable, providing continuous coverage even if you change jobs

$250,000 of 20-year term life insurance may cost as little as $13* per month and can help your family cover:

Education costs

Credit card bills

Living expenses

Mortgage/rent payments

*A $13 monthly premium estimate is applicable for a 30-year-old male nonsmoker in excellent health purchasing a 20-year OPTerm life insurance policy with a $250,000 face amount.
