Request for Website Approval

Legal & General America

Before making a request for a Website compliance review, please:

- Read the conditions for approval in the Website Compliance Guidelines to ensure the submission meets expectations.
- For further guidance please contact your Internal Wholesaler.
- Remember that websites developed by an agent must be reviewed first by the general agency and submitted to Legal & General America by the general agency through which the business is written.
- To submit, please email the form to mdcompliance@lgamerica.com.

Upon receipt by Legal & General America:

- Once reviewed, the Compliance Department will contact you with requested modifications.
- The Website is not considered approved until you have received a response from the Compliance Department, have made any necessary changes, and notified the Compliance Department that the modifications have been made.

This form must be submitted to the Legal & General America Compliance Department and must be accompanied by the proposed copy. The advertisement may not be used until requested changes are made, final copy is sent to the Compliance Department and acknowledgement of the final has been provided.

Compliance questions should be directed to the Compliance Department by email at mdcompliance@lgamerica.com.
